Dijon

CAPITAL OF BURGUNDY

Dijon, the historic capital of Burgundy, is known for its rich cultural heritage, renowned vineyards, and exceptional gastronomy.

The city, with its medieval center listed as a UNESCO World Heritage site, is home to architectural treasures such as the Palace of the Dukes of Burgundy. Famous for its prestigious wines and iconic mustard, Dijon is also the site of the Cité internationale de la Gastronomie et du Vin, a must-visit place to discover French culinary expertise and the art of living. This venue highlights the region's unique gastronomic heritage while providing a space for meetings and exchanges around the culinary arts.

Dijon is also a vibrant university city, with a modern, green campus that hosts more than 30,000 students and researchers. As an intellectual hub, Dijon is easily accessible by high-speed train (TGV) from Paris, making it an ideal destination for conferences and seminars.
